TO BEAUTIFY CITY

CITY BEAUTIFUL CLUB PLANS INTERESTING MEETING FOR OCTOBER 6

A meeting of more than ordinary importance will be held at the Union high school on Tuesday evening, Oct. 6th, for the purpose of considering ways and means of beautifying Glendale and community for 1915. Two-minute speeches will be made by a number of Glendale's beauty-loving people.

Mr. Bartlett of Los Angeles, who is an authority on the latest methods of beautifying cities, will be the main speaker. He will illustrate his address with pictures.

This meeting is being widely advertised under the auspices of Mrs. C. H. Toll, president of Glendale City Beautiful Club.

TARR-GILLIES WEDDING

Ethel Tarr, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tarr of the Glendale Art Stone Co., third and Isabel streets, was married to Archie Gillies son of A. I. Gillies, a well-known Glendale business man. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother.

The bride was beautifully attired in white crepe de chine and carried a lovely bouquet of white carnations, while the maid of honor, Miss Ruth Tarr, sister of the bride, carried a beautiful bouquet of pink carnations, which matched well with her pretty pink dress of voile.

Eugene Gillies, brother of the groom, stood with Archie.

The decorations were tastefully arranged and beneath a bell of white marguerites the bride and groom were united in the bonds of holy matrimony by the Rev. Elmer K. Fisher of Los Angeles.

The affair was very quiet and was attended by the bride and groom's very near relatives.

All of Ethel's friends wish her God-speed and happiness.

The happy couple are now at home to their friends at 443 East Third street.

START BOOK WITH RELISH DAY

It was "relish and pickle day" on Thursday for the Priscilla Club members. By that it is meant the book of recipes which is being kept by the eight ladies was commenced with eight different recipes of pickles and relishes.

Unlike last year, this little club meets every two weeks to exchange specified recipes, enjoy luncheon and a social hour together. Thursday's meeting was with Mrs. J. W. Dutton of 1477 Salem street, who spared nothing for the comfort and delight of her guests. Lavender and white cosmos embellished the home and table and a jolly good time was enjoyed.

The next regular meeting will be with Mrs. H. A. Anderson, 1517 Salem street.

ENTERTAINS THIMBLE CLUB

The Elrose Thimble Club enjoyed the usual industriously pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Louis Grafios, who entertained the eight members in her home, 144 Elrose avenue, on Wednesday last.

Dark red dahlias were effectively arranged about the rooms in which the guests were received and later served to a dainty collation.

Mrs. Charles S. Poss of 131 Elrose avenue will be the next hostess, entertaining Wednesday afternoon, Oct. fourteenth.

START YEAR'S WORK

The first regular meeting of the Sixth Street Parent-Teacher Association was held at the Sixth street school Thursday afternoon. A large and enthusiastic audience was interested in the talks by Mrs. Charles H. Toll and Mr. Richardson D. White. After a short business session the afternoon was devoted to the speaking and delicious ice cream and cake were served by the officers, who are as follows: Mrs. Edgar A. Bayley president; Miss Eva Daniels, vice-president; Mrs. L. Johnson, secretary; Mrs. G. D. Roach, treasurer.

ROSE LUNCHEON

Crimson roses and fern were used for decorative purposes by Mrs. Willard Rose when on Wednesday of this week she entertained most charmingly at luncheon in her attractive rooms in the Frentz apartments at Orange and Fifth streets. A sparkling cut bowl of buds showered their velvety heads far over the board at which covers were laid for the complimented guest, Mrs. George Ennis of Los Angeles, and Mrs. J. H. Regan, Mrs. J. J. Schremp, Mrs. D. A. Cushman and Mrs. Frances Bayard, all of Glendale.

INITIAL MEETING

TROPICO THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB ENTERTAINED—OTHER ITEMS FROM TROPICO

The initial meeting of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon Club for this club year was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leigh Bancroft, 119 South Brand Boulevard. Mrs. Bancroft's beautiful home, nestled among the heavy tropical plants and foliage, with its vine-covered ramada and artistic furnishings, is beautifully adapted for entertaining, and the hostess, with Mrs. A. L. Bancroft, Mrs. H. H. Davenport, Mrs. Harry Bowman and Mrs. W. C. Mabry, dispensed most generous hospitality to the large number of club members and their guests. The business session, which proved a most interesting one, was presided over by Mrs. Charles A. Barker, club president. A special musical program was rendered by Mrs. C. M. Turck, chairman of the music section, and through the courtesy of the Southern California Music Company a representative of that firm was present and rendered a number of selections on a Victrola, much to the pleasure of all present. Mrs. Randall Hutchinson of Los Angeles gave a most interesting talk on "Some of the Beauties of the Pan-American Exposition." This talk was cleverly illustrated with views of the beautiful buildings and samples of the building material. During the social hour plans of the new clubhouse were exhibited.

Mrs. Edward H. Weston entertained as her guests recently Miss Cora Wells of Los Angeles and Miss Hazel Dunlap of Pasadena.

Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kasseall, were the guests at a delightful luncheon party given by Mrs. C. H. Kuster of Los Angeles at her home Thursday afternoon.

REBEKAHS BLOOM AGAIN

Carnation Rebekah Lodge No. 257 met Thursday evening in the new I. O. O. F. hall on Third street and as usual combined business with pleasure.

The district deputy president, Sister Nunn of Hollywood, was present and gave an interesting talk pertaining to Rebekah lodge. The grand warden of Hollywood and Mrs. Speck of Margaret lodge, Ann Arbor, Mich., were also present, the latter being present as a special guest of the evening.

Conclusive of the regular business activities, all adjourned to the banquet room, where 'midst the bloom of pink carnations and fern a delicious supper was consumed.

BUSY CLUB PRESIDENT

Thursday Mrs. Mattison B. Jones of 106 Orange street was among the fifteen club presidents who were in attendance at the luncheon meeting called by the district president of Los Angeles. Today Mrs. Jones has been called upon to be hostess at one of the tables at the Friday Morning club opening luncheon and will also speak on "What the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon Club Has Accomplished for the Good of Our Community." Mrs. Jones is proud to state that besides other things, the local club started the public library and created such a sentiment against billboards that Glendale is known throughout all circles as being free from billboards than any other outlying community. Both affairs are Friday Morning Club house events.

ACTIONS NOT WORDS

There has been talk enough to beautify a hundred cities like Glendale. What is needed now is actual work. There are a few citizens in the shadow of tall weeds who are telling how to beautify Glendale. Get busy with scythe, spade and hoe and brighten up the appearance of things on the lots adjoining your own property. Wanted, a man to clear off the lot adjoining the Evening News building. The editor of The News will ask permission of the owner to plant flowers on this lot. Work, not words, is needed now.

WESTON WINS AGAIN

Edward H. Weston, the Tropico camera artist, has just received a telegram announcing that he is the winner of a beautiful loving cup for the best exhibit of four photographs at the convention of the Northwestern Photographers' Association at St. Paul, Sept. 30. This contest was open to the world. This adds another to Mr. Weston's long list of prizes. Receiving honors is becoming an every-day occurrence to Mr. Weston.

A Public Demand

There is a growing demand for higher ideals in the management of moneyed institutions.

The business of this bank is not only under the direction of the laws of the state of California, and supervised by the Superintendent of Banks, but also examined by the Los Angeles Clearing House Examiner.

All officers are bonded. The Bank of Glendale makes no loans to any of its officers—disinterestedness in those having care of your money is thus assured.

Keep in mind that we do a Commercial and Savings bank business; that we are provided with all that is desired in Safety and Service.

We invite your business.

The X. V. I. Club meeting, which was to have taken place Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. T. McFadden, has been postponed on account of the Fiesta at La Ramada. Mrs. McFadden will be hostess next Saturday afternoon, Oct. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa V. Fanset of 133 North Louise street, together with their daughter, Mrs. M. Collins, and Mrs. M. Pickering of Los Angeles, enjoyed one day this week at Watts, where they were the guests of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sternberg, Mr. George Duffet and Miss George Duffet of Glendale and Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs of Tropic were among the local people who enjoyed the large reception given by the Los Angeles Shriners Wednesday evening of this week.

Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Field of 239 South Kenwood street entertained as their guests at dinner on Monday evening Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ginn, Miss Clara Ginn and Mr. Willette Bohannon. Miss B. L. Field assisted in entertaining.

Mrs. J. A. Neel of 146 South Louise street, accompanied by her cunning little daughter, Mary Jane, left Thursday for Pittsburg, Pa., where they expect to remain until after the first of the year. Pittsburg is Mrs. Neel's former home, so she has a wide circle of friends and acquaintances to welcome her back.

"Here's a quarter," remarked an Alhambra mother to her young hopeful. "Go down to the grocery and get a quarter's worth of sugar." The boy took the money and returned in half an hour. "Where's the sugar?" inquired his mother. The boy began to whimper and finally exclaimed. "I d-d-ropped it through a c-c-crack in the sidewalk comin' home."

Friends of Mrs. Hattie Johnston will be sorry to learn she is under the care of a physician as the outcome of a fall which resulted in the breaking of a limb. Mrs. Johnston makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Johnston, 335 Everett street, where the accident occurred about 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening and where she is now resting as comfortably as can be expected.

VALLEY VIEW

Miss Freda Baker, who spent the summer on the home ranch near Calabasas, returned to Glendale the first of the week to again make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Woodyard at 1564 Vine street.

Ernest Butler has his broom making establishment on Pacific avenue, just south of Vine street, in working order and is turning out brooms quite fast.

Mrs. Hugh James of Penn street has been very ill for several weeks, but is now slowly improving.

Earl Kendall of 1451 Riverdale drive had a narrow escape from a serious accident Wednesday evening. He was riding his motorcycle along the San Fernando road up Burbank way after dark, when an auto truck he was passing made an unexpected turn and he collided with it, throwing him off of his machine. A gash was cut in his forehead that required three stitches to close.

Pacific avenue from Broadway to Colorado boulevard has been spiked and graded and generally worked over for the winter. If we are not greatly mistaken, the floods will tear it to pieces and the last state of that road will be worse than the first. Nothing but a thorough macadamizing will be of any permanent good.

Mark Van Luven and wife of 1537 Colorado boulevard have bought an acre near Burbank and expect to go into the poultry business next year.

Rev. Hartsell's sister, Mrs. Berry, her husband and their three children, have moved to Glendale from Seattle and are living at 1504 West Fifth street.

The European war has its victims in Glendale as well as at home. One woman living on Colorado boulevard has three sisters in Germany, all married, one with fourteen children, one with nine and the other with seven. The fathers of these families, four sons between twenty and thirty and three sons of seventeen and eighteen, have been called to serve the kaiser on the battlefield, leaving the mothers and younger children to struggle along as best they may. All may be dead by this time, the poor woman says.

SWEET THING ABOUT FIESTA

The candy booth at the Tuesday Afternoon Club Fiesta tomorrow afternoon is all in readiness and there is something there besides the Spanish decorations that flaunt so gayly in the breezes, which will cause every one who draws nigh to reflect. The huge olive tree 'neath which the following ladies, Mrs. Helen I. Campbell, chairman, and Mrs. Leroy W. Bosserman, Mrs. C. H. Bott and Mrs. Colin Cable will dispose of the home-made confections, never before boasted of anything quite so tempting nor quite so sweet.

CURRENT GOSSIP

They do say that in the "Spanish Romance" to be given at the Fiesta tomorrow evening there are four well known attorneys in leading roles. It seems funny to hear of lawyers romancing in public, of all places, but for explanations, etc., see Albert Pearce, Harry Goodwin, city attorney of Tropic, C. T. Van Etten and Frederick Baker.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Let all who enjoy excellent music and a fine lecture illustrated by colored pictures, come to the City Beautiful meeting, high school auditorium, Oct. 6, 8 p. m. Admission free. Come, everyone, who would like to see a beautiful Glendale.

The bill offered in the house at Washington for "eventual Philippine independence" was quite unnecessary. There is no present demand for legislation of this kind. Eventual Philippine independence is a thing long since conceded.

San Bernardino reports many mountain lions in the hills. The animals are doing great damage among the cattle, and are reported more numerous this year than for the past decade.

Three hundred conversions are reported at Azusa, as a result of the eloquence of Revivalist Oliver of Kansas City. This represents one-fourth of the population of Azusa.

MUNSON SAYS

DON'TS FOR THE KODAKER:

Don't expect to get good results from snaps made before 9 a. m. or after 5 p. m., even if the sun is shining. Winter, 10 to 2.

Don't try to take snaps in the shade or under trees; rest the camera on something solid and give one to five seconds.

Don't hold camera in your hand when making time exposures.

Don't have the sun facing you; let the subject face the sun.

Don't make snaps indoors; have the source of light at your back; rest the camera and time according to light in the room.

Don't give a time exposure for long distance views. The farther the subject, the less the time required.

Don't forget to let us do your finishing.

MR. WRIGHT OF HOLLYWOOD was over today. He has made us his agent for his delicious candies. That makes another corking good line. Remember, we are the exclusive agents for this candy.

SATURDAY at our fountain we are going to serve that dainty Maple Nut Cream again. This is the one that made such a hit.

Our No. 170 keeps selling better every day. Maybe you will buy a bottle one of these days. Why not tomorrow?

A new line of Pipes at the Cigar Case. Investigate.

Nylotis Face Powder is sure a dainty dresser necessity.

Our delivery system is the best in town. Both of our phones are No. 156. No want too small to be delivered.

Get the habit of meeting on the corner.

MUNSON—THE DRUG MAN

NOTICE TO MOTHERS

Most all headaches are due to eye strain and in most all cases this strain can be overcome by the use of glasses. So in case that your children are so affected, I will be pleased to help them by examining their eyes free of charge, and if glasses are needed, I will supply the same at a reasonable rate.
